Foreword

As you turn the pages of this, the 1954 EAGLE, you will recall the memories of your days at Belcher School. This book illustrates for you, the studies, athletics, and social activities in which you have had an active part. We hope that you--the student body and faculty--will treasure this book as the record of your 1953-54 school days at Belcher.

THE STAFF

Dedication

We dedicate this book to the people of our communities, Belcher, Dixie, and Gilliam. This is a tribute we pay to you for your support in all the activities which we sponsor. Only with your help have we been able to make our projects and yearbook a success.

THE ANNUAL STAFF

Principal's Message

Dear Students:

It is always a pleasure to have a small part in the yearbook, especially since it is the work of the boys and girls of our school.

Yearbooks have become a permanent part of most schools. They are good examples of people working cooperatively together and sharing each other's problems. It is this type of unity and companionship that must exist in order for us to live more happily and completely.

May this year be remembered for all of the good things that have come into your life, so that next year will be a challenge for even greater heights along life's pathway. Share your joy and happiness with everyone, be an example to your fellowman, and win a new friend each day.

Jimmy to Manuel - his shyness of girls.

Jesse to James Merrill - his straight razor. Use away!
To Joe - his ability to drive with one hand.

Roger to Floyd - his credit. To Danny - his power to charm the women.

Shirley to Josie - her shining attendance record. To Wilna - a lemon and box of salt. To Patsy Sue - some extra weight to protect her from the March winds.

Bobby to Don - his noisy manner. To Joe - his ability on the basketball court.

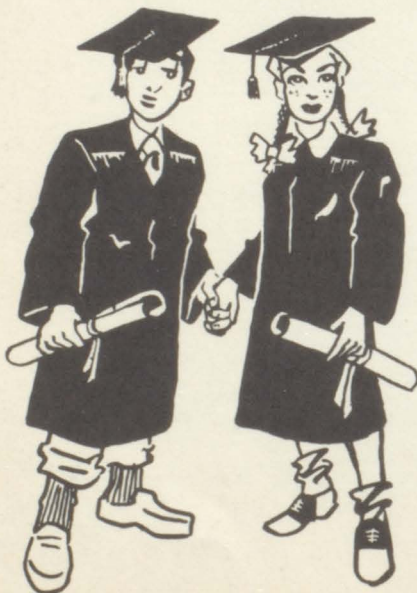

Earnestine to Patsy Denmon - her secret for watching television and writing themes at the same time. Her ability to mix orange juice to Senior Girls of '55.

Barbara to Betty - educated pencil stubs and to Laron, Annabeth and Patsy Sue her ability without the yakety-yak!

Senior Prophecies

Bobby Parker - "Since Bobby is a favorite of girls and loves to be around them, he will succeed in being a well loved president of a Girl s' Society School. As far as I can see Bobby is not lazy so he will be a girls' dancing teacher."

Roger Walters - "Since Roger never will make a star basketball player, he is to be a cigarette salesman. At night he will demonstrate how to chew Bull of the Woods chewing tobacco on television."

Barbara Wilkinson - "This girl is dangerous, and she will be one of the best F.B.I. agents the city of Belcher has ever had. She is likely to live wierd and dangerous and will escape death several times."

Jessie Hemperly - "Jessie always loved to go to school, he will be one of the best paid school teachers in Caddo Parish, but in his spare time he will stand in for Tarzan at the 'I 8 U' motion picture studio."

Jimmy A. - "Jimmy is an excellent student and likes to teach, he is going to be a teacher who will teach facts on family life in a girls' college."

Earnestine Parker - "Earnestine is going to start off by being an entertainer at a dude ranch in Arizona. But after she was there for several years, she finally saved enough money to buy it. Now she owns a very swanky dude ranch."

Shirley Brackman - "Shirley is going to own her own Slim Whim reducing club, and since Shirley will be the worlds feather weight woman wrestling champion, she will teach other slim girls how to wrestle."

Rosemary Herring - "Rosemary is going to become the most beautiful model Neiman Marcus has ever had and she will write an anonymous love column for the United Press."

J. C. Harkness - "J. C. is one of the nation's most popular singing stars. When he is not singing he goes to college and takes math. His reason for taking math is quite simple, he is looking for the perfect math teacher. One day he finds the perfect professor, but the professor is not a man. ' WATCH OUT MRS. DIXON!!!'
